

The People Smuggler:

An evening with Robin de Crespigny

Centre for Human Rights Education

The Curtin University Centre for Human Rights Education and the Refugee Rights Action Network invite you to an evening with awarded author Robin de Crespigny.

With an introduction by Dr Caroline Fleay (Curtin University) and Marcus Hampson (RRAN), Robin will present her award winning book, The People Smuggler, and will talk about the researching and writing of this extraordinary story.

There will be opportunities for people to ask questions, meet the author and have a copy of the book signed by her. Books will be available for purchase on the night.

Date

Thursday 28 February 2013
5:45 for a 6:00pm start

Venue

Tim Winton Lecture Theatre
Building 213.104
Curtin University
Kent St, Bentley

Free Parking

Available in Curtin Car Park D3
Enter via the main entrance
on Kent St

For a map of Curtin's
Bentley campus see:

properties.curtin.edu.au/maps/

RSVP by Monday

25 February 2013

g.galardi@curtin.edu.au

or (08) 9266 7169

facebook.com/

CurtinCentreForHumanRightsEducation

If you have any special requirements to enable you to attend this event please advise when you RSVP. We will contact you to provide assistance.

Please also see

disability.curtin.edu.au/

Robin de Crespigny is a Sydney film-maker, producer, director, writer and a former Directing Lecturer at the Australian Film, Television & Radio School.

The People Smuggler tells the true story of Ali Al Jenabi who, after fleeing Saddam Hussein's torture chambers, is forced to leave his family behind in Iraq. What follows is an incredible international odyssey through the shadow world of fake passports, crowded camps and illegal border crossings, living every day with excruciating uncertainty about what the next will bring.

Robin won the 25th Human Rights Award for Literature in 2012 and The People Smuggler has also won the Queensland Literary Award and was one of three finalists for the Walkley Book Award. It has also been short-listed for the Waverly Library Award for Best Literature.